In the halls of memory treasured
With the jewels rich and rare,
There's a picture of an angel
Twining violets in her hair;
As a fragrant lily there
And the treasure rich and rare,
Hangs the picture of an angel
With the violets in her hair.

Once we walked the starry meadows
When the violets hung with dew;
Each drop held a treasured image
Like an angel looking through;
Ah, the smiles so sweet and true
In each beaded drop of dew,
As we tarried in the meadows—
Saw the angels gazing through!

Again the summer decks the meadows
And the violets drop with dew,
But the beaded drops of light
Give no angel to my view;
No laughing eyes peer through
The opal globes of dew—
I hold a sacred memory,
The smile so sweet and true!

In a quiet dell there sleeps
Where the valley opens West,
One with violets in her hair
And a lily on her breast,
After life the dreamless rest
Waiting for the morning blest,
With the violets in her hair
And the lily on her breast.

Negro Shot by a Lady.

Yesterday afternoon, a highly respectable married lady whose name we suppress for satisfactory reasons, shot a negro named Geo. Cregg, under the following circumstances: The wife of the negroe was in the employ of the lady as a cook, and on several occasions he and his wife had engaged in quarreling about the premises. Yesterday afternoon, another altercation sprung up between them, which the lady overhearing ordered the man to desist and leave the premises. Instead of doing so he entered the chamber of the lady and used towards her very insulting language. The lady again ordered the insolent rascal away, and this time he left the room, but soon returned with an axe, and threatened to kill her. Fearing he might attempt to carry out the threat, the lady seized a pistol which was in reach, and fired, the ball striking the negro on the top of the shoulder, inflicting a slight flesh wound, from which, however, the blood flowed freely. Upon being struck, the negro fled.

While it is to be regretted that the necessity was forced upon her of using a weapon, the spirit of the lady in defending herself against the threats of the black scoundrel cannot be too highly commended. It is to be hoped that the punishment for this outrage will not stop at the slight wound inflicted upon its perpetrator, but that he will be arrested and receive at the hands of the law the measure of justice due him for his outrageous behavior.—Lynchburg News.

The lady referred to in the above was Mrs Barnes, the wife of a worthy and estimable gentleman: Like our contemporary, we deeply regret woman should ever be placed in a situation which requires her to resort to such means, yet the courage and coolness she displayed is highly commendable.

We understand that a warrant was issued yesterday for the lady who shot the negro man Wednesday evening, but that her condition is such as not to permit her appearance before the Mayor at present.—Pet. Index.

CONFISCATION OF SOUTHERN LANDS.—A bill is being prepared by prominent loyal men of the South to enforce the present confiscation laws and to modify them as to resurvey all of the seceeded States in the same manner as the public lands are surveyed, and to grant pre-emption rights to the freemen and the Union soldiers. Three hundred millions of dollars of the proceeds arising from the sales are to be used in reimbursing local men for property destroyed and confiscated by the Confederate Government, and the balance will be set aside for paying pensions to disabled Union soldiers. The bill provides that after the survey is made the land shall be offered for sale to the freedmen and discharged Union soldiers at the rate of $1.25 per acre, payable in twenty years, at an interest of six per cent., per annum. Other parties to be allowed to purchase at twenty-five per cent cash, and equal annual instalments for three years, at six per cent interest. The last section provides that disloyal persons be allowed to retain property to the amount of $1000, provided the limits of such property do not exceed one of the legal sub-divisions of 160 acres.—Wash. Cor. of the N. Y. Times, August 14.

ACCIDENT VS. MISFORTUNE.—A Boston wit, defining the difference between an accident and a misfortune, says: "If Wendell Phillips should fall into the river, that would be an accident. If he should ever get out again that would be a misfortune." The author of this, it is reported, has been appointed Secretary of Legation to Mr. Bancroft.

SCENE AT A CIRCUS.

A number of years ago, when Michigan was a new country, in Livingston, county of ——, there lived a family by the name of Clayton, and one called Perkins also—as well as a great many others.

Pete Clayton was a tall, fine looking fellow—a noble specimen of our backwoodsmen—standing six feet two in his stockings.

Pete had taken a shine to Miss Sally Perkins, and it was known in fact that they were engaged, but the day when the knot was to be tied had not as yet been divulged.

In the month of August, 1846, June's circus came through their town for the first time, and in fact it was the first circus that had ever passed that way, and there were a great many people that had never seen one. When the important day arrived, the town was filled to overflowing with a motley crowd, of course, and every fellow had his Sal.

Now Pete wanted to get married on the coming Christmas, but Sally wished to have it put off until the next spring. When the ticket wagon was opened the tent was filled in a hurry. Pete and Sally had been looking through the side shows and they were late getting in, and the performance had already commenced. They walked around the entire ring, trying to find a seat, and although they could seat two thousand people, every seat was full.

'Never mind,' said Sal, 'I'd just as lief stand up.'

But the gallant Pete couldn't think of it and said:

'Wait a minit, I'll get you a chair,' and off he started, leaving Sal alone.

Just at this moment the clown came in, dressed in his usual costume, and dancing around the ring, stopped right in front of Sal and began to sing,

"Oh Sally am the gal for me."

This caused Sal to blush, for she thought that the clown was looking at her. As she stood near the ring, of course she hid the view of those in lower seats behind her, and as usual on such occasions the clown cracks his jokes at the offenders until they take the hint and find a seat but she said she had rather stand up. At this the clown commenced his jokes, remarking to the ring master:

'There's a chance for me now."

'A chance for you?'

'Yes don't you see that gal has lost her beau, and she is looking at me I know,' and turning three or four somersaults, he stopped directly in front of Sal and began to sing:

'O, Sally is the gal for me,
I would not have any other,
And if Sal died to-morrow night,
I'd marry Sally's mother.'

This, evidently meant for her, raised Sal's dander, and she burst out with:

'I'm the gal for you, am I? Marry my mother, would yer?' You low lived, spotted scum of the earth!

If my feller was here he would wallup you for that. I wouldn't stay here another minit—nor neither would any decent people either!—, Saying which, she rushed out of the tent amid roars of laughter.

The clown assuming a comical attitude, remarked to the ring-master that his grandfather was a remarkable man, so was his grandmother, too, but that gal beat all his forefathers.

At this juncture Pete rushed in, closely followed by Sal, and jumping into the ring he squared off at the clown, and said:

"I'll teach you to insult any female under my charge!" and let fly at his opponent, and taking him plump in the face sent him to-mother earth, at which he jumped on him, and commenced kicking him unmercifully. Sally standing on the out side of the ring, clapped her hands and sung out:

That's it Pete, give him Jessie, and we'll get married Christmas, sure!"

At this moment the ring master and three or four others caught Pete and commenced to thrash him, when Pete's friends interfered and a general free fight ensued, which completely broke up the circus.

VAMPIRE BATS.—Among the products of the country around Para are vampire bats, which are so dangerous that the natives are obliged to guard carefully against their intrusion into their dwellings. A letter says that a party of Americans recently had an unpleasant experience with them. They were on an excursion up the Amazon, and at night one of them was bled so badly by a vampire as to awake in a state of exhaustion with a face like a corpse. The foot of his hammock and the floor beneath it was saturated with blood, the flow of which was checked with difficulty. It is this difficulty of staunching the blood which makes the vampire so dreaded, the quantity which the creature requires to satisfy its appetite being comparatively trifling. Some persons seem to be especially liable to their attacks, while others can sleep in a room infested by them nightly with impunity. They only make their attacks [illegible] and a light kept burning in a sleeping-room is an effectual safeguard.

White Labor Wanted in Tennessee.

Correspondence of the Cincinnatti Enquirer.

MURFREESBORO', August 15, 1867.—The object in writing this short piece is to attract the attention of the laboring class to this part of Tennessee. There is great dissatisfaction among our farmers here about colored labor, and they are determined to rid themselves of the negro, for they have become almost worthless now; consequently there will be a wide field open to the white class of laborers, and the farmers generally express great desire to get white men to work their farms, and great inducements will be held out to them to come.—There could be plenty of work furnished five thousand (both male and female) in Rutherford county alone. They would not be wanted before the 1st of January, 1868, for the contracts with the negroes run until that time. We invite all classes to come, except those that consider themselves on an equality with the negro. There can be any kind of contracts made, such as renters, croppers on shares, or wages per year or month. There will be no difficulty in securing situations, for I know of no farmer in the county who will hire a negro when he can get a white man. Yours, &c.,

Brandy Peaches--A New Mode.

The usual way of preparing this delicious preserve is to take clingstone peaches, boil them in syrup until soft, and then put them into jars and cover with apple or peach brandy.

A better and simpler plan will be to take open-stone or soft peaches, peel them, cut them in two, take out the stones, put the halves into jars, cover thickly with crushed sugar, and then fill each jar with diluted alcohol. To make a better flavor still, crack the stones and put in the kernals.

Pure alcohol will cost five dollars a galion; and another of rain water, and you have the alcohol properly diluted. The peach and the kernal will give all necessary flavor.

I have tried this plan, and while it does not make so pretty a preserve, it makes one infinitely better and cheaper than the ordinary plan.

Other fruits may be treated in the same way. The apricot, the plum, the pear, and the apple, all make a good preserve, treated in this manner.

ECONOMIST.

A LUMINOUS IDEA. One of the correspondents of the Cincinnati Commercial is filled with an orginal idea so brilliant that the editor makes haste to make room for the communication in which he embodies his discovery, as follows:

ODIN, ILLINOIS, August 14, 1867.—To the editors of the Commercial: Herewith I enclose you a plan whereby Edwin M. Stanton may become President of the United States. Such a bit of poetic justice would thrill the heart of every loyal man throughout the land. Let Cameron resign; let the Govener of Pennsylvania appoint Stanton to fill the vacancy. Wade can resign his position in the Senate. Elect Stanton presiding officer. The House can present impeachment papers against Johnson. Let the Senate oust him—Stanton becomes President.—Cameron can be reappointed, and Wade reelected as presiding officer of the Senate. Justice is satisfied—the nation triumphant!"

"Oh, pa, Mr. Smith was here this morning, and when ma told him that you would not be home till late, he said her lips were like honey, and that he wished he was a bee, and then he kissed her. They gave me a stick of candy not to tell any one, but I don't think they'd mind you, you are so well acquainted with ma."

An old Dutch farmer had a handsome daughter, named Minnie, who lately joined the Methodist Church, against which the old farmer was somewhat prejudiced. The young minister, under whose instrumentality, Miss Minnie was converted, visiting her frequently, excited his suspicion that all was not right. Accordingly he visited the church on Sunday night, and seated himself unobserved, among the congregation.

Soon after taking his seat, the minister, who was preaching from Daniel v: 22, repeated, in a loud voice, the words of his text "Mene, mene, tekel [illegible]." Upon which the old farmer sprang to his feet, seized the affrighted girl by the arm, and hurried her out of the meeting house. Having reached the church yard, he gave vent to his feelings in these words:

"I knows dare was somethings wrong, and now I schwares to 'em."

"Why father, what do you mean?" replied the bewildered and innocent girl.

"Didn't I," shouted the old man, striking his fist together and stamping with his foot, "didn't I hear the parson call out to you, Minnie, Minnie, tickle de parson?'"

CURE FOR SNAKE BITES.—The following is recommended as a certain and speedy cure for snake bites:

"Ten grains of iodine of potassium and thirty grains iodine, to be dissolved in one ounce of water and kept in a bottle with a ground glass stopper, and to be applied externally—never internally. If possible, stop the circulation in the parts bitten by bandaging, and use a stick or anything to tighten the bandage, and apply the solution to the bite with a piece of cotton, sponge or anything that will hold the fluid, and then bind it to the wound and keep wet till the cure is effected. It is said that five drops of undiluted poison from the fang of a rattle snake mixed with five drops of the above solution, and inserted in a wound with a syringe, was as harmless as ten drops of water."

POLITICAL SENTIMENT IN GEORGIA.

It is stated that the recent letter of Messrs. Johnson, Hill and Peeples "have shaken the faith of many heretofore in favor of organization under the military bill," and "it is said that the anti-convention idea is becoming more popular with the people of Georgia."

We print the following extracts from a speech of Hon. B. H. Hill at Atlanta a few days since, as having to some extent, the ideas which have effected the change referred to:

How many people in Atlanta belong to the "Loyal League?" [Laughter.] I warn all decent men to abandon such dens. I know the times have been such that many good men have naturally gone astray. But save yourselves before it is too late! Destroy all the evidence of your membership—hide all your connections to mutual revealment of the fact that you were members and come out. You are partners for the past; but if you continue you will be covered with shame, and your very children will disown you. [Applause.] Come, join the Past Trials League. Our pledge is to support the Constitution—love its friends and hate its enemies, and proclaim our love and hatred at noonday and from the house-tops. Save yourselves now, or be forever lost to decent society and your own self-respect. All the brave and true men, even at the North, respect me this day more than they do you. The Radicals will use, but even they will despise the Southern man who becomes their sycophant.

My colored friend, will you receive a word of admonition? Of all the people, you will most need the protection of the law. You will most suffer by anarchy and usurpation. Do you believe that the man who is faithless to the Constitution of the country will be faithful to you? If a man will take an oath to support the Constitution and then violate it, can you rely upon his keeping any promise to you? No; I tell you such people are friends to nothing but their own interest. They are betrayers of the Constitution to keep themselves in office; they desire to use you to help them get in office, [Applause,] and they will betray you whenever they find it to their interest to do so.

They tell you they are your friends. It is false; they are your very worst enemies. They tell you they set you free. It is false. These vile creatures, who come among you and put themselves on a level with you, never went with the army except to steal spoons, jewelry and gold watches. [Great Applause.] They are too low to be brave. They are dirty spawn, cast out from decent society, who come down here and seek to use you to further their own base purposes.

They promise you lands, and teach you to hate the Southern people, whom you have known always, and who never deceived you. Are you foolish enough to believe that you can get another man's land for nothing, and that the white people will give up their lands without resistance?

If you get up strife between your race and the white race do you not know you must perish? You are now ten to one the weaker race.—You will grow weaker every day.—You can have no safety but in the Constitution, and no peace except by cultivating relations of kindness with those who are fixed here, who used your services, and who are willing to protect you.

The same experiment which is now being attempted with you by those Northern knaves who seek your votes was attempted by similar people in France for the negroes in Hayti. They passed laws to give the negroes political equality—abolish all distinctions of color—and what is the result? There was first a war of classes; then a war between the whites on one side and the blacks and mulattoes on the other. Then there was a war between the blacks and mulattoes, and neither white, black nor mulatto have ever seen peace or prosperity in Hayti since.

These men intend your extermination. Some of them are writing books in favor of your extermination, and I have myself heard some of them avow that you ought to be exterminated or driven from the country. These are the same people whose fathers found the Indians here. They declared the earth was the Lord's and belonged to his saints, and that they were his saints. Then they killed and drove off the poor Indian and took his lands. If you do not make and keep friends of the Southern people your fate is that of the Indians! Improve yourselves.—Learn to read and write; be industrious; lay up your means; acquire homes; live in peace with your neighbors; and drive off as you would a serpent, the miserable, dirty adventurers who come among you, and [illegible] ed into white society, seek to foment among you hatred for the decent portion of the white race. You can always know a gentleman, whether from the North or South, and all such respect and esteem—for such will not deceive you. Do not desire to vote until you are qualified to vote, and then look for the right to be given, not in a manner that violates the Constitution, but in accordance with it, and through your own State Governments. I feel more deeply for you than I do for the white race.—White people ought to know better than to disregard the laws and expect any good. But you do not know the laws; you do not understand deceivers.

I am willing, anxious to welcome among us good and true men from the North who come to help to build up our country, and add to its prosperity. I wish they would come on and come in multitudes. They will find us friends. But when I see the low dingy creatures—hatched from venomous eggs of treason—coming here as mere adventurers to get office through negro votes—to ride into power on the deluded negroes shoulders—and creeping into secret leagues with the negroes and a few renegade Southern whites, and talking flippantly about distranchising the wisest and best men of the land, because they know it is the only possible chance for knaves and fools like themslves to get place, I can but feel ashamed that such monsters are to be considered as belonging to the human species. I warn you, my colored friends, if you would be respectable in society, or prosperous in your purse, or decent in your own feelings, to avoid all such people.—They will hug you and call you friend, and talk about your friends, but they will pull you down to degradation, to sorrow, to poverty and to shame. They have white skins but black hearts, and will ruin your characters if you associate with them. They are creatures born of political accidency and treasonable conspiracy, and are the enemies of all good governments and of all decent people. [Applause]

And now, my friends of all races, of all colors of all nations, of all sexes, of all ages—let us resolve to stand by our Constitution, and surrender it to no enemy. This is our country. Let us resolve that we will never be driven from it nor ostracised in it.

GENERAL GRANT AND THE PRESIDENT.—Gen. Grant's letter to the President, says that the people who have sacrificed their lives and spent dollars for their countries preservation, are evidently opposed to Gen. Sheridan's removal, he having performed his duties faithfully and intelligently. His removal will be regarded as an effort to defeat congressional views and embolden them to renewed opposition to those who attempted to break the Government by arms.

Gen. Thomas has repeatedly objected to being placed in charge of either of the five districts. General Hancock's department is intricate and he should'nt be removed. Gen. Grant adds, there are military, pecuniary, and above all, patriotic reasons why this order should not be insisted upon. The President in replying, is not aware that the question of Gen. Sheridan's retention has been submitted to the people, as it would be unjust to the army to assume that Gen. Sheridan is not capable of commanding the Fifth District.

General Thomas' administration of the Department of the Cumberland will compare favorably with Sheridan's government of the Fifth District. Sheridan has rendered himself obnoxious by his manner of executing the law, and more so by assuming authority not granted him. His rule has been one of absolute tyranny, without reference to the principles of our government or the nature of free institutions. His course has seriously interfered with the harmonious and speedy execution of the act of Congress. His removal cannot be regarded as an effort to defeat him. The object of the change is to facilitate the execution through an officer who has never failed to obey the statutes of the land, and, within his jurisdiction, a like obeyance from others.

The President compliments Generals Thomas and Hancock, and feels assured that under General Sherman's guidance Sheridan will crown himself with honor fighting Indians.

In conclusion the President fails to perceive any military, pecuniary or patriotic reasons why this order should no tbe carried into effect.

SECRET MILITARY ORDER IN VA.—Gen. Schofield last week ordered a commission of Magistrates in Hanover county, to investigate the fact whether a colored military organization existed in said county. The investigation showed that a secret military organization of formidable strength does exist among the blacks which it is believed extends to the counties throughout the State. The fact creates great excitement and alarm among the whites, who have neither organization or arms.

DIED,

At Beaufort, N. C., on Tuesday, 27th inst., LOUISE K., infant daughter of John L. and Laura V. Pool, aged 8 months.

DIED the 16th day of July, at her residence in Wayne county, Mrs. MARTHA BRASWELL, widow of Stephen Braswell, deceased, in the 81st year of her age. Sister Braswell, with her husband, joined the M. E. Church in 1803. He died 12 years ago "full of faith and good works." Sister B. was truly a consistent member of the church, deeply pious, and devotedly attached to the cause of Christ, "steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord," for 64 years, constantly attending on all the means of grace, feeding the hungry, visiting and nursing the sick, ministering liberally of her means to the ministers of Christ; a class of men she loved next to her Savior, as many of them "who have fallen asleep, and a number who remain to this day," could and will testify. She possessed many of those qualities of head and heart which made her a most estimable woman; truly a 'mother in Israel.' Her memory is embalmed in the hearts of many of the members of the N. C. Conference. Among the last requests her husband made of her, was to take care of the preachers. That request she complied with to the end of her life. The minister always found under her roof many comforts and a hearty welcome to greet him. The poor were never sent empty a way; the needy and distressed always found a friend in her. Among the requests she made in the close of life, one was to a daughter who was to move in and take possession of the home she was then leaving: "Desby," said she, "move here as soon as I am gone, and keep the preacher's room in order with what is in it for them." Many who knew her and shared largely of her hospitality and rejoiced with her at the house of God, will shed a tear while reading this notice; yet they will remember she has gone to mingle her songs of praise with Anderson, Doub, Nicholson and others of the sacramental host, who knew and loved her here. Her hope was as an anchor of her soul both sure and steadfast to the end; reached to that within the vail. I conversed with her frequently and always found her strong in faith, giving glory to God. I feel prepared to say:

"Lo! the prisoner is released,
Lightened of her fleshly load;
Where the weary are at rest;
She is gathered unto God.

Lo! the pain of life is past,
All her warefare now is o'er;
Death and hell behind are cast,
Grief and suffering are no more."

J. M.

The Herald drops General Grant, saying the political position assumed by him shows the great soldier in a new light. It is his first development of political genius, his first and final mistake. The reply of the President has completely overturned and outflanked him. General Grant does not understand the crisis; he clings to Sheridan and forgets principles.

THE FAIR AT HENDERSON.—The Ninth Annual Fair of the Central Agricultural Society of Granville, Warren and Franklin will be held at Henderson, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 16th., 17th, and 18th. of October. We are indebted to the Executive Committee for the Premium List for the occasion, which is made up on a most liberal basis. In the absence of a regular State Fair, we hope that every county, at all accessible, will enter the arena of competition, and contribute to make the Henderson Fair a great success.

When you want sweet things, go to Freeman's Agency, and you will never regret it. By reference to his advertisement, it will be seen that he has just received a fine stock.

Read new advertisement of Mitchell, Allen & Co., "Labor Saving Economical Pump."

ANOTHER REVIVAL.—The Reverend Mr. Mahoney, of the Methodist Church, has been conducting a protracted meeting at Thompson's School House, in this county, for the last few days, with the most happy results. About twenty persons have already professed conversion, and the interest still continues. Meetings are held daily and many are inquiring, "What shall we do to be saved?"

☞ We have received the first Nos. of the "Daily News," a new paper published at Charlotte, N. C. It is the only paper west of Raleigh and north of Columbia, containing the Associated Press Dispatches.—We wish the enterprising editors the most abundant success.

ANOTHER PAPER.—The Conservative, a weekly, published at Washington, N. C., by Lewis W. Satterthwaite, Esq., has been received. It is a handsome sheet, and edited with ability. The editor says in his salutatory that he is opposed to Radicalism, and that the name of the paper is indicative of its politics now and hereafter.

COMING ELECTIONS.—The California election is held on the first Monday of September; Maine on the second Monday of September; Ohio, Pennsylvania and Iowa on the second Tuesday in October, and Massachusetts, Minnesota and Wisconsin on the first Tuesday in November.

We find some good hints as to domestic economy in these days thrown out by some enlightened cotemporary, who says: "A pump at the door, a dairy in the yard—a kitchen under the same roof—a cooking stove instead of a fire place built to hold a half cord; seasoned fuel sawed and split and placed under a convenient shelter, a washing machine instead of a washtub; these and other conveniences furnished to our wives would enable them to manage their domestic affairs with one-fourth the former number of servants, and with more ease and comfort. As servants are not to be had as in times past, these economical expedients become absolutely necessary; and every husband, worthy of the name, will take care to supply them before the ladies are worn down in their attempt to conduct their household operations after the former manner with the few domestics now at command.

The breach between the President and General Grant is widening.—General Grant is on defiant grounds in opposition to the Executive assignments. He protests with some indignation against General Hancock's removal from the department of Missouri. General Grant has not yet promulgated his instructions carrying the President's orders into effect.

Moses A. Bledsoe, Esq., will address the people at Morrisville, in Wake, to-day on the subject of Registration.

Order Assigning Gen. Hancock to the Command of the Fifth District.

Executive Mansion,
Washington, Aug. 26.

SIR:—In consequence of the unfavorable condition of the health of Major General George H. Thomas as reported to you in Surgeon Hasson's dispatch of the 21st instant, my order dated August 16, 1867, is hereby modified so as to assign Maj. General Winfield S. Hancock to the command of the fifth (5) Military District, created by an act of Congress, passed March 2, 1867, and of the Military Department comprising the States of Louisiana and Texas. On being relieved from the command of the Department of the Missouri by Maj General P. H. Sheridan, Major General Hancock will proceed directly to New Orleans, Louisiana, and, assume the command to which he is hereby assigned will, when necessary to a faithful execution of the laws, exercise any and all powers conferred by acts of Congress upon District Commanders, and any and all authority pertaining to officers in command of Military departments.

Major General P. H. Sheridan will at once turn over his present command to the officer next in rank to himself, and, proceeding without delay to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, will relieve Maj. General Hancock of the command of the Department of Missouri.

Major General George H. Thomas will, until further orders, remain in command of the Department of the Cumberland.

Order from General Grant with Regard to the Change of Commanders in the Second Military District--Revenue Receipts--General Grant has an Interview with the President and Backs Down from the Position he Assumed in Relation to the Removal of District Commanders.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 28.

The following was issued by General Grant to-day in connection with the Executive order relative to the removal of Generals Sheridan and Sickles:

In pursuance of the foregoing order of the President of the United States, Brevet Major General Canby will, on the receipt of this order, turn over his command to the officer next in rank to himself, and proceed to Charleston, South Carolina, to relieve Major General Sickles of the command of the Second Military District.

Major General Sickles, on being relieved, will repair to New York city and report by letter to the Adjutant General.

By Command of General GRANT.
E. D. TOWNSEND,
Ass't Adjutant General.

The order regarding the 5th District had not been promulgated up to three o'clock to-day

The Internal Revenue Receipts to-day reached five hundred and fifty-eight thousand dollars.

General Grant had a prolonged interview with the President this morning.

During the interview to day between the President and General Grant, matters were adjusted, and General Grant's letter of yesterday was withdrawn. Subsequently the order relieving General Sickles was promulgated, and there are assurances that that affecting the 5th District will be promulgated to-morrow.

The Abingdon Virginian of last Friday says:

A gentleman in Lee county informs us of a most painful circumstance that occurred in Claiborne county, Tennessee, several weeks ago. A young lady, aged about 16, by the name of Martha Kirk, was instantly killed, accidentally, by a boy 13 years old, the son of a Mr. Coxdile, with whom the young lady lived.—The circumstances were these:

The boy had discovered a large snake in the yard, and insisted on Miss Kirk to go and see it. She being unwell, was lying on a bed, and refused to go. The boy told her he would make her go, and playfully picked up an old musket that was in the house, and fired. It was loaded with some 8 or 10 rifle balls, the whole charge entering her mouth, and blowing her head all to atoms.

This is another fearful warning of the danger of leaving loaded fire arms within the reach of children.

OUTRAGEOUS CONDUCT.—A negro man by the name of Whitfield Goff, who, during the war, was in the employ of Major J. C. Green, in this place, and well known to many of our citizens as an honest, peaceable, well behaved man, was forcibly taken from his bed about 12 o'clock last Friday night, in Montgomery county, and carried to the woods, where he was stripped and unmercifully whipped by twelve negro men. The reason given by these outlaws was that Goff had refused to join the Union League. After all twelve had whipped him, they turned him loose and told him that if he was found in the county again they would kill him.—They also robbed him of what money he had. Steps have been taken, we understand, to bring these scoundrels to justice, and we sincerely hope they may be ferreted out and made to pay the penalty of the law.—Rounoke (Va.) Times.

NEGRO KILLED.—A negro man, named Tom Jeffries, was killed on last Saturday night about a half mile from Big Lick depot, on the Virginia and Tennessee railroad, by jumping from the train whilst under full speed.

☞ Major John H. Gee, formerly commandant of the Confederate prison at Salisbury, N. C., is reported to be dying near Tallahassee, Fla.

On Saturday afternoon, soon after four o'clock, while Mr. Robert Delaney, of "Robinson's Great South-western Circus," was performing on the trapeze, a rope gave way and he fell to the ground, a distance of about twenty-four feet. At first he was supposed to be dead, and the rumor went abroad that he had broken his neck. Fortunately he was only stunned, his nervous system receiving a great shock. Drs. Galt, Jackson, Bell and Hardy were soon in attendance, and Mr. Delaney was removed to the residence of Mr. W. R. Jones, where he is receiving every attention, and promises soon to be about again.—Norfolk Journal.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Know Thy Destiny.

MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y.—Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications sacredly confidential. Address in confidence, MADAME E. F. THORNTON, P. O. Box 223, Hudson, N. Y.

Reparator Capilli.

Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig;
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair,
And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

For restoring hair upon bald heads [from whatever cause it may have fallen out] and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow up on the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses [from their own experience] can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may already have thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, sends us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. MADAME REMINGTON, the world renowned Astrologist and Somnambulistic Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a perfect and life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a month in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, clearing cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cutich it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS
MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,
Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs on but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee with likeness and all desired information $1 Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secresy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed.—References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

To the Public.

THE GOLDSBORO' LIBRARY ASSOCIATION, is now fully organized. Its object, as indicated by its name, will be, to collect a large Library for the benefit of the community. We have secured a commodious Hall, in which our monthly meetings will be held, and in which the Library will be kept. We doubt whether any enterprise, not strictly religious, could be started, which would be more beneficial in this community. Our people feel its necessity. Its importance to the rising generation cannot be estimated too highly. If this enterprise is properly fostered, it will confer inestimable advantages upon the citizens, and especially upon the youth of our town and the surrounding country.

As this organization is in its infancy, we need your assistance. We need donations of books; we need money to purchase new books; we need furniture to fit up our hall. Any books you can spare, whether historical, scientific, religious or biographical—anything that you can spare, (provided it is suitable to be placed in the hands of the young,) will be thankfully received. We would be glad to obtain donations of chairs, tables, desks, &c., for the Reading Room. Let every gentleman in the town and surrounding country become a member of the Library Association, and thus aid us in raising funds to purchase new books. All donations of money will be handed to the Treasurer, Prof. E. W. Adams. All donations of furniture, books, &c., will be handed to the Librarian, J. C. Slocumb, Esq. These gentlemen will acknowledge the same in a proper manner.

PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY
MEDICINE & SURGERY.

THE PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY of Medicine and Surgery was organized in 1848. Chartered by the Legislature, February 26, 1853. Name changed by a legislative enactment to the Eclectic Medical College of Philadelphia in 1860. In 1863 it purchased the Pennsylvania Medical College, established in 1842, and the Philadelphia Medical College, which had previously been merged into the Pennsylvania Medical College. In 1864 it purchased the Penn Medical University. The Trustees of the separate schools united, petitioned, and obtained a special act of the Legislature, consolidating these institutions and changing their names to that of the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery, March 15, 1865. All these various acts are published in the statutes of Pennsylvania.—The cost of the building and museum was over one hundred thousand dollars. It will be observed that the University, as now organized, is the legal representative of the four medical colleges that it has absorbed. It is a liberal school of medicine, confined to no dogma, nor attached to any medical clique; but embraces in its teachings everything of value to the profession.

Sessions.—It has two full sessions each year, commencing on the 1st of October, and continuing until the 1st of January as its first session, and from the 1st of January to the 1st of April as its second; the two constituting one full course of lectures. It has also a summer session, commencing the 1st of April and continuing until August, for the preparatory branches, such as Latin, Greek, Mathematics, Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, Anatomy, Physiology, etc.

TICKETS.—Tickets to the full course of lectures $120, or $60 for each session. For the summer or preparatory course $25. Graduating fee $30. To aid young men of moderate means, the University has issued five hundred scholarships, which are sold to first course students, for $75, and to second course students and clergymen for $50, each constituting the holder a life member, with the perpetual privileges of the lectures, and all the teachings of the school. The only additional fees are a yearly dissecting and matriculating ticket, each of which is $5.

THE ADVANTAGES OF SCHOLARSHIPS.—The student holding a scholarship can enter the College at any time during the year, attend as long as he chooses, and reenter the institution as frequently as desired.

It requires no previous carding or study to enter the University on scholarships, hence, all private tuition fees are saved.

Students, by holding scholarships, can prosecute other business a part of the time.

The candidate for graduation can present himself at any time, and receive his degree as soon as qualified.

In case a student should hold a scholarship and not be able to attend lectures, it can be transferred to another, thus preventing any loss.

Parents, guardians, or friends of students wishing to purchase scholarships for them a year or more before their attendance at the University, can secure them by advancing one half the price, and paying the balance when the student enters. Physicians and benevolent men can bestow great benefit upon poor young men, by presenting them a scholarship, and thus enabling them to obtain an honorable profession.

The Faculty embraces seventeen eminent physicians and surgeons. The University has associated with it a large hospital clinic, where every form of medical and surgical disease is operated on and treated in the presence of the class.

COLLEGE BUILDING.—The College building, located in Ninth street, south of Walnut, is the finest in the city. Its front is collegiate gothic, and is adorned with embattlements and embrasures, presenting a novel, bold, and beautiful appearance. The facade is of brown stone, ornamented by two towers, rising to the elevation of eighty feet, and crowned with an embattled parapet. The building contains between fifty and sixty rooms, all supplied with water, gas, and every other convenience that modern improvement can contribute to facilitate medical instruction. Only five hundred scholarships will be issued, and as two hundred and fifty are now sold, those who wish to secure one should do so at once. Money can be remitted by express, or a draft or check sent to any National bank in the United States, when the scholarship will be returned by mail, signed by the President of the Board of Trustees, Jos. S. Fisher, Esq., and the Dean of the Faculty, W. Paine, M. D. All orders for Scholarships or other business of the University, should be addressed to Prof. W. Paine, M. D, Philadelphia, Pa.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS invited to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An Enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgement of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire.—These THE WORLD always aim to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of the newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party.—Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.

LAWRENCE'S
COMPOUND EXTRACT OF
ROSADALIS,
For the Cure of
Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swelling, Swelled Neck, Mercurial Affections, Enlargement and Ulceration of the Glands, Joints, Bones, &c.,
—AND—
ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,
—SUCH AS—
Pimples, Boils, Tetter, Scald-Head, Salt-Rheum, Ring-Worm, Old Sores, Sore Eyes, and all Diseases
—Caused by an—
Impure State of the Blood.
ALSO
SYPHILIS IN ALL ITS FORMS.

By using this medicine, the Blood and all its secretions will be purified, and the entire system restored to a healthy condition, and hence all diseases, such as Chills and Fever, Weakness, &c., will be prevented.

☞ Prepared only by
J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D., Practical Chemist, Wilson, N. C.
☞ For Sale by Druggists Generally.

ROSADALIS,
OR
Lawrence's Blood Medicine.

This greatest of all Blood Medicines is a highly concentrated fluid extract of the Rosadalis Scrofularia, in combination with other chemical extract of roots and plants.

Stillingia is one of the ingredients in this medicine, and although used only for a few years by physicians, it has already obtained an unrivaled reputation as a Blood Medicine or Alterative.

Read what the highest Medical Authority says about Stillingia, used as one of the Compound Parts of this Medicine, as an ALTERATIVE.

The following are the names of physicians, all of high standing and extensively known, and who laud it as an alterative of unequaled efficacy, viz: THOMAS Y. SIMONS, M. D., American Medical Recorder, Vol. XIII, page 312; A. LOPEZ, M.D., New Orleans Medical and Surgical Journal, Vol III, page 40, and H. R. FROST, M. D., Southern Journal of Medicine and Pharmacy, November, 1846. These gentlemen report STILLINGIA to be undoubtedly a most valuable remedy in Scrofula, Cutaneous Diseases, as well as in many other complaints benefitted by the use of mercury, and their statements are corroborated by all physicians who have tested it.

ROSADALIS,

in all Chronic cases, has almost a specific action. In fact, it is the only medicine that will effect a speedy cure when the system is in a depraved state.

It Acts on all the Secretions of the System and, at the same time, carries off the diseases not only through the Blood, but also through the secretions of the Skin and Kidneys.

This preparation is compounded upon scientific principles, and with great care, by one thoroughly acquainted with the medical qualities and effects of each article, separately considered, as well as the whole in its combined state. I therefore recommend this preparation with the greatest confidence, being fully persuaded that it will give, very general, if not universal, satisfaction.

I do not pretend that it is a Cure-all, nor that, in all cases, and under all circumstances, it is absolutely infallible.—Common sense teaches us that the day of miracles has passed, but science and facts remains, and on the strength of these we call attention to the Rosadalis Compound, as a VALUABLE MEDICINE.

ONE BOTTLE OF THE ROSADALIS,
THE
Great Southern Blood Medicine,
CONTAINS
More real virture for Diseases of the Blood than one hundred bottles of the much lauded
SARSAPARILLA.

DR. LAWRENCE'S ROSADALIS

Has no equal as an alterative or Blood Medicine. It is no secret medicine, as the formula has been published; and is used extensively by physicians in their practice, as the most reliable medicine known for the cure of SCROFULA, WHITE-SWELLING, and all diseases growing out of an impure state of blood. Thousands will testify to its value.—North-Western Medical Journal.

THE ROSADALIS

Restores the system when it is afflicted with SCROFULA, CUTANEOUS DISEASES, or any other disease of the blood; it will add more to one's happiness than all the wealth of the world—Chris. Mon.

ROSADALIS will bring health? What is the value of money compared with health? Men will toil early and late, undergo many trials, deprive themselves of the comforts of life, to make money, and when they have accumulated it, what is it worth to them, without health?

MOTHERS, who wish to find a medicine peculiarly adapted to the cure of humors and eruptions in their children, will find a safe and sure one in the ROSADALIS, which is acknowledged to be the best Blood Medicine known. Physicians attest to this.

ROSADALIS

IS THE ONLY CERTAIN CURE FOR
SCROFULA, or KING'S EVIL.

At first small knots appear under the skin on the neck, or behind the ear, which gradually increase in size until they form one large tumor. This continues often for a long time without breaking, and even then only discharges a thin, watery humor. Sometimes the knots appear on the breast, eyes, feet, hands and armpits. Scrofula is becoming more general in this generation than people are aware of. The old, the young, the rich, the poor, are afflicted alike, and are the victims. The young child with its weak eyes: the glands are swollen, the sores and pimples on different parts of the body may lie dormant in its system for years before it develops itself.

The Rosadalis is perfectly harmless.

Providence has provided in Nature plants and roots that are remedies for all the ills of suffering humanity. This Preparation contains no mineral acids or mineral substances whatever. It has been extensively used, with universal satisfaction in all cases.

DR. LAWRENCE'S,
CELEBRATED
IS THE
WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Cures all diseases peculiar to woman, when caused (as they most generally are) by an
Impure State of the Blood.

For Sale by Davis, Hunter, Dr. W. H. Finlayson, and Druggists generally.
